Asian American/Pacific Islander Resource Center

Nancy I. Kim, MA, Director, AA/PIRC
AA/PIRC INTERNSHIP

• 5 Paid Interns including 3 Lead Interns
  • Required to have prior 3 quarter experience as academic intern
• 7 Academic Interns – Independent Study sponsored by Provost Lu
• 1 Graduate Student Intern

• 98% Graduation rate

• 3-Quarter curriculum: self, community issue, organizational analysis
• Skills development: public speaking and facilitation, writing, project/event organization, teamwork and collaboration, cultural competency
• Research and presentations
  • Event topic research
  • Present and lead discussion on AA/PI history readings 2nd quarter
  • Present on community issue 3rd quarter
The Asian American/Pacific Islander Resource Center and the College Nine and College Ten Activities Office present:

Stand-up by Jenny Yang and D’Lo

Dis/orient/ed Comedy

8 PM

Friday
Jan. 30

Free Show
Limited Seating

Advance tickets available at the College Nine and College Ten Activities Office on Tuesday, Jan. 30th. NO DVD Sale

FOR & ABOUT Asian American/Pacific Islander women identified students

March 3, 2015
6-9 p.m. @ College Eight Red Room

VOLUNTEER NAM graduated from UC Berkeley in 2006 with a Master’s degree in Chicano/Latino studies. She works for the American Indian Education Center, an organization that focuses on improving educational opportunities for Native American students.

Art Sharing & Reception: March 10th 7:00 p.m. at College Eight Red Room

March 3, 2015
6-9 p.m. @ College Eight Red Room

VOLUNTEER NAM graduated from UC Berkeley in 2006 with a Master’s degree in Chicano/Latino studies. She works for the American Indian Education Center, an organization that focuses on improving educational opportunities for Native American students.

Sponsored by Asian American/Pacific Islander Resource Center, College Eight Programs Office and the Women’s Center. For more information and/or accessibility needs, call 831-459-5349.

For more information or disability accommodations, contact the AA/PRC at aspir@ucsc.edu or 831-459-5349.

The Asian American/Pacific Islander Resource Center and the College Nine and College Ten Activities Office present:

DIS/ORIENT/ED

Comedy

8 PM

Friday
Jan. 30

at the Colleges Nine & Ten Multipurpose Room

Free Show
Limited Seating

Advance tickets available at the College Nine and College Ten Activities Office on Tuesday, Jan. 30th. NO DVD Sale

FOR & ABOUT Asian American/Pacific Islander women identified students

March 3, 2015
6-9 p.m. @ College Eight Red Room

VOLUNTEER NAM graduated from UC Berkeley in 2006 with a Master’s degree in Chicano/Latino studies. She works for the American Indian Education Center, an organization that focuses on improving educational opportunities for Native American students.

Art Sharing & Reception: March 10th 7:00 p.m. at College Eight Red Room

March 3, 2015
6-9 p.m. @ College Eight Red Room

VOLUNTEER NAM graduated from UC Berkeley in 2006 with a Master’s degree in Chicano/Latino studies. She works for the American Indian Education Center, an organization that focuses on improving educational opportunities for Native American students.

Sponsored by Asian American/Pacific Islander Resource Center, College Eight Programs Office and the Women’s Center. For more information and/or accessibility needs, call 831-459-5349.

For more information or disability accommodations, contact the AA/PRC at aspir@ucsc.edu or 831-459-5349.

The Asian American/Pacific Islander Resource Center and the College Nine and College Ten Activities Office present:

DIS/ORIENT/ED

Comedy

8 PM

Friday
Jan. 30

at the Colleges Nine & Ten Multipurpose Room

Free Show
Limited Seating

Advance tickets available at the College Nine and College Ten Activities Office on Tuesday, Jan. 30th. NO DVD Sale

FOR & ABOUT Asian American/Pacific Islander women identified students

March 3, 2015
6-9 p.m. @ College Eight Red Room

VOLUNTEER NAM graduated from UC Berkeley in 2006 with a Master’s degree in Chicano/Latino studies. She works for the American Indian Education Center, an organization that focuses on improving educational opportunities for Native American students.

Art Sharing & Reception: March 10th 7:00 p.m. at College Eight Red Room

March 3, 2015
6-9 p.m. @ College Eight Red Room

VOLUNTEER NAM graduated from UC Berkeley in 2006 with a Master’s degree in Chicano/Latino studies. She works for the American Indian Education Center, an organization that focuses on improving educational opportunities for Native American students.

Sponsored by Asian American/Pacific Islander Resource Center, College Eight Programs Office and the Women’s Center. For more information and/or accessibility needs, call 831-459-5349.

For more information or disability accommodations, contact the AA/PRC at aspir@ucsc.edu or 831-459-5349.
STUDENT ALUMNI INSPIRING LEADERSHIP (SAIL) MENTOR PROGRAM

• Culturally relevant and community oriented approach to professional development
• Alumni panels
• Topical workshops
  • Model Minority Myth
  • Balancing family pressure and career aspirations
  • Family migration and cultural capital
  • Non-traditional career paths
  • Networking and community building after college

Go Back Home? Do What You Love?
Alumni Panel on Balancing Family Responsibilities and Career Aspirations -- Workshop 2 of 6

Wed Nov 18, 2015: 6:30-9:30 PM
COWELL CONFERENCE ROOM 132

Pre-register online to reserve your spot and receive free resource materials and supplies!
For more information & accessibility-related needs, please contact aapiRC@ucsc.edu or 831-459-1000.
Sponsored by the Asian American / Pacific Islander Resource Center, co-sponsored by UCS Alumni Association.